

Community Engagement Manager:

The Port of New Orleans is hiring a Community Engagement Manager to develop and implement robust outreach programs and related collateral, along with project-specific activities designed to forge new and deepen existing relationships, and build partnerships with a wide range of stakeholders. Working at a strategic and operational level, the successful candidate will develop talking points based on an understanding of the relevant issues, represent the Port at stakeholder meetings, host tours and other outreach events, facilitate and lead related events, manage the Port's sponsorship efforts, work internally to ensure stakeholder viewpoints are fully considered, and help resolve stakeholder issues in a timely manner. The successful candidate will have excellent communications and project management skills, strong Microsoft office skills, a collaborative approach and problem-solving mindset. The effective Community Engagement Manager will be discrete, disciplined, creative, committed, politically astute, service oriented, positive and proactive. EOE.

Bachelor's Degree and 4 years related experience required.

Please email resume to Human.Resources@portnola.com. Deadline to apply is December 10, 2018.
